FAQ'S
Trailer and Oversized Vehicle Parking in Ocean City, MD

Q: Do I need a special parking permit if I am driving an oversized vehicle or bringing in a trailer during OC BikeFest this year?

A: Yes, if you do not have adequate parking at your hotel/condo/house rental. Please check with your rental property first to see if they have appropriate parking.

Q: Is this parking restriction new to Ocean City?

A: No, in 2015 Ocean City passed an ordinance prohibiting the parking of trailers and oversized vehicles on any municipal parking lot, public street, or alley between May 1 – October 31st. The ordinance was not enforced in 2015, however, it will be enforced going forward.

Q: Where can I purchase a City Trailer Parking Permit for OC BikeFest?

A: Jolly Roger Park, (back lot) 32nd Street.

Q: How much does a City Trailer Parking Permit cost?

A: $50. OC BikeFest will be selling the permits for the city at Jolly Roger Park on 32nd Street in their back lot on the Bayside beginning Wednesday, September 14th. We will accept cash or check: payable to the Town of Ocean City.

Q: How many days does the City's Parking Permit cover?

A: It covers Wednesday, September 14 through Sunday, September 18, 2016.

Q: What if I come in before Wednesday, September 14?

A: Jolly Roger Park will also be available for parking in their back lot beginning Sunday, September 11 through Sunday, September 18.

Q: How much will it cost to park out trailer for the week at Jolly Roger Park?

A: $75. For the week Sunday 11th – Sunday 18th.

Q: Is there a fee to park the trailers at Jolly Roger Park before the City's Trailer Parking Permit starts on Wednesday?

A: Yes, $50

Q: Will there be overnight security?

A: No, but the lot will be well with roaming PD periodically

Q: Will I be able to stay/sleep in my Trailer

A: No! The city will not allow it.

Q: When will I have to pick my trailer up?

A: All trailer must be picked up and off the lot by noon Monday the 19th